Kyrewood Equestrian Centre Ltd is required to conform with the Health and Safety in Employment Act 1992. As entrants in the Kyrewood Variety Horse Show at this venue, you are obligated to accept responsibility in relation to operation and use of our "Place of Employment" within the focus of the Act, which is to eliminate, isolate or minimize risk to personal health and safety. Kyrewood Equestrian Centre is responsible for presenting a safe venue to use. As a user of these facilities you are required to take all practical measures to manage and supervise the health and safety of your participation in events. The Act embodies a considerable measure of commonsense, with the key being to identify potential risks in advance by practical management application. A list of identified hazards is displayed on the notice board at the Competition Centre. Potential risks include:

- Riding and leading horses and ponies in public areas
- Unstable platforms, jumps and fencing
- Motor vehicles on this site
